

VIDEO SERIES The Board's Role in a Changing Health Care Environment

VIDEO: Time for a New Model of Governance
FEATURING: Jamie Orlikoff, President,
Orlikoff & Associates

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What are the implicit, longstanding assumptions about health care governance and the changing societal expectations and values that may no longer support our current model of governance?

NOTES: _____

2. Does community-based governance, with board members drawn primarily from communities served, provide the expertise and competencies needed to effectively govern an increasing complex health care system?

NOTES: _____

3. What alternative models of governance (for example compensating board members, professional boards) may be necessary to effectively guide our health care organizations through the transformative changes they are now facing?

NOTES: _____

4. What warning signs has our board experienced (such as difficulty recruiting/retaining younger members, lack of willingness among board members to participate in continuing education, low levels of attendance at board and committee meetings) that indicate the need for a new model of governance?

NOTES: _____

5. Has our board already adopted best governance practices to allow time for testing new approaches that would support a transition to a new model for governance over time?

NOTES: _____
