DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Have our board and CEO had the conversations necessary to ensure we have a robust succession plan and process in place?

NOTES: ________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

2. Does our board understand the elements that are part of an effective succession process?

NOTES: ________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

3. Is our CEO succession process aligned with organizational strategy and future needs?

NOTES: ________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

4. What key steps should our board take to ensure a smooth transition for our CEO and organization?

NOTES: ________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________