Serving as the [__organization name__] board chair is an important responsibility that must be undertaken/discharged with a high level of commitment, seriousness, competence and energy. How, and how well, this role is performed has a significant impact on our board’s effectiveness, efficiency and creativity. Working collaboratively with the President/CEO and executive committee, the chair leads the board and is a key member of [__organization name__] leadership team. Key expectations associated with the role of board chair are specified below.

Functions
The chair is expected to:

• serve as an advisor to the President/CEO regarding execution of his/her role; governance development; and board-executive relationships
• serve as a role model for, and mentor to, other directors
• serve as an advisor to board committee chairs regarding the performance of their roles
• serve as our board’s representative/spokesperson to stakeholders and other external constituents
• serve as our board’s representative/spokesperson to the executive/management team, medical staff and employees
• serve as our board’s representative at [__organization name__] sponsored functions and events
• serve as our board’s primary representative, point of first contact and spokesperson to the media
• chair the joint (board, management, medical staff) conference committee
• serve as chair of the board’s executive committee
• with advice/counsel of the executive committee, formulate annual board goals and a work plan; forward to the board for review/approval
• direct professional and support staff assigned to the board
• with advice/counsel of the executive committee, appoint chairs and members of board standing and ad hoc committees
• attend, as our board’s representative/spokesperson, meetings of the medical staff
• with advice/counsel of the executive committee, plan/set the agenda for board meetings
• chair/facilitate board meetings and ensure they are focused, effective, efficient and creative
• prior to the conclusion of a director’s term, conduct a session to: provide feedback regarding peer assessment results; and with him/her, formulate a performance/contribution development plan
• review and approve all expense reimbursements to the President/CEO
• perform other tasks necessary for ensuring high levels of board performance/contributions
• after conclusion of his/her term, be willing to provide advice/counsel to the incumbent board chair

Qualifications
The chair must:

• after careful reflection and assessment, have the time and energy to fulfill the expectations of this demanding role; estimated to require approximately __ hours per month
• have completed at least one term as a director
• have the confidence/respect of colleague directors, the President/CEO and physician leaders
• during service on the board, have fulfilled all expectations enumerated in the director position charter
• be perceived as highly effective by peers in previous director assessments
• have no general, material conflicts-of-interest that would inhibit execution of the chair role
• have exemplary personal/professional integrity
• have demonstrated wisdom, intelligence and good judgment
• be effective and articulate expressing him/herself
• possess, or be willing to acquire, the knowledge/skills to facilitate focused, effective, efficient and creative meetings
• be willing/able to attend education programs designed to enhance his/her board leadership competencies

Appointment
• single, two-year term; eligible for one term reappointment based on results of board chair performance assessment
• if an individual’s service as chair exceeds the maximum director term limit, that limit will be extended by the number of years necessary to complete his/her term as board chair

Nomination and Election
• nominees for the position of chair need not have been the board’s vice chair, other officer or a committee chair
• a special ad hoc chair nominating committee will forward to the board one or more nominees; this committee will be composed of:
  • current board chair (committee chair)
  • President/CEO, ex officio with vote
  • one past board chair (whether or not he/she is a current director)
  • chief of the medical staff in an advisory capacity
  • two at-large directors, selected by the executive committee

NOTES:
This is an illustration and is not meant to be comprehensive or inclusive. It is provided as a template based on current best practices and is intended to be a point of departure, for your board’s discussion and formulation of its own chair position charter.

This charter is aligned with other Center Tools, particularly: board charter; governing principles; and director position charter.

This chair position charter is grounded on a model of healthcare organization governance forwarded in Board Work by Dennis Pointer and James E. Orlikoff (Jossey-Bass, 1999). For information regarding, or to order, this publication, visit www.americangovernance.com.