

BOARD INFRASTRUCTURE

Beyond Bylaws: Four Health Care Governance Lessons from COVID-19

By Laura Orr

While continuing to respond to the COVID-19 crisis, hospital and health system boards can use this experience to strengthen leadership, engagement and trust.

PRACTICAL GOVERNANCE

Building Your Health Care Board as a Strategic Asset

By Kimberly A. Russel

Changing the mindset of health care CEOs and boards to envision the board's potential is the first step in a long trek to turn the board into a strategic asset.

NEW DELIVERY MODELS

Creating Age-Friendly Health Systems

By Marie Cleary-Fishman, Jay Bhatt and Jonathan R. McKinney

Hospital and health system trustees can help move forward an evidence-based framework to achieve better health for an aging population with complex care needs.

RESOURCES

Mental Health Awareness Month Is Here

May is Mental Health Awareness Month, and the AHA has resources available to help medical professionals, behavioral health providers and the general public maintain their mental and emotional well-being.

Updates on COVID-19

Since the COVID-19 outbreak began, the American Hospital Association has worked closely with the CDC and other federal, state and local partners to respond to this challenge and to make sure hospitals and health systems have the most up-to-date information. For the latest information and resources, visit aha.org/COVID19.