

EMERGING ISSUES

Top 10 Emerging Trends in Health Care for 2021: The New Normal

By Geoffrey Martin

Continued disruption will require health care boards to adapt their governance models to adapt to the unprecedented times.

INTERVIEW

Board Support Essential to Behavioral Health Access

By Sue Ellen Wagner

Robert Trestman of Carilion Clinic discusses how governing boards and leadership teams can work with their communities to develop strategies and improve access to behavioral health care.

DIVERSITY

5 Steps to Achieving Diversity on Your Board

By Karma H. Bass and Erica M. Osborne

Focusing on specific strategies and practices will support diverse recruitment on health care boards.

INNOVATION

The Pathway Back to the Board Room

By Kimberly A. Russel

With careful assessment, health care boards may consider a return to the board room in 2021.

EDUCATION & EVENTS

AHA Rural Health Care Leadership Virtual Conference & Engagement Experience

The AHA's 34th Annual Rural Health Care Leadership Virtual Conference and Engagement Experience features dedicated educational programming connecting the work of governing boards to the challenges of transforming the rural health care delivery system.

NEW CONTENT SERIES

AHA Transformation Talks: Strategies for Reimagining Health Care

The spread of COVID-19 revealed systemic cracks in the social needs and public health infrastructure of communities — inequities that have existed for decades. Join the AHA and other health care experts for a video discussion on ways to address social determinants of health.

MARKET SCAN

How to Help Clinicians Stay Resilient During COVID-19

Concerns are mounting rapidly about the number of physicians, nurses and other care team members being adversely affected by the COVID-19 pandemic.