EXEICIVE PERFORMANCE AND COMPENSATION
Commonsense Tools for Board-CEO Relationships
By Todd C. Linden
Following key strategies for effective CEO performance appraisals are essential to the health care board's role.

WORKFORCE
Keeping Value Front and Center in Health Care
By Priya Bathija
Hospital boards can think creatively about how to generate value for their patients and communities.

RESOURCES
Educating the Health Care Board for the Future
Health care’s traditional governance model is showing its age, and with it the need to reexamine how boards are being educated.

EDUCATION AND EVENTS
Accelerating Health Equity Conference
AHA's Community Health Improvement and the Institute for Diversity and Health Equity are hosting a virtual conference, March 16–18, an opportunity to engage with health care leaders and innovators who are working to improve community health and strengthen leadership and governance to sustain health equity strategies.

HEALTH EQUITY
Data-Driven Initiative Drives Down Disparities in Rural Health Care
Identifying the underlying factors that contribute to disparities in health outcomes for vulnerable rural populations and developing strategies to address these issues remain constant challenges, but progress is being made.