POPULATION HEALTH
Responding to a Community Mental Health Crisis
By Jeffrey A. Wothers
How collaboration and identification of resources allowed Carroll Hospital to improve coordinated behavioral health services.

VIEWPOINT
Exploring Ways to Reinvent Generational Recruitment
By Elizabeth Maze Clarey
An emerging group of future health care leaders is ready to take on the challenge of health care board service.

WORKFORCE
Team-Based Care Creates Value
Assembling a team of health care providers from diverse professional backgrounds has the power to improve value for hospitals and for patients, particularly during COVID-19.

ENVIRONMENTAL TRENDS
4 Lessons for Navigating a New Reality in Health Care
As the health care field moves from response to recovery, strategic and innovative thinkers have started to share their insights and plans for the road ahead.

ANALYSIS
Proportion of COVID-19 Cases among U.S. Men Outpacing Those in Women
A new analysis by Global Health 50/50, an initiative to advance gender equality in global health, sheds light on sex disparities in COVID-19 deaths.